MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

Graduation from high school or possession of a high school equivalency diploma and either:

- A.) One year of work experience involving the examination, investigation, or evaluation of claims for assistance, veteran's or unemployment benefits, insurance, or a similar program or service operating under established criteria for eligibility;

OR

- B.) One year of work experience involving substantial communication with adults involving persuasion, negotiation, explaining, or counseling. This experience must have involved the exercise of judgement in dealing with or responding to another person. (Typical jobs involving this experience may include customer service representatives, people providing personal services, people providing social services, interviewers, counselors, and similar jobs involving periodic confrontation with a resident, customer, member of the public, etc.);

OR

- C.) An equivalent combination of experience as limited by A and B above.

NOTE: Study in a college or university may be substituted for the experience on a year for year basis. Study must be at a college or university accredited by a regional, national, or specialized agency recognized as an accrediting agency by the U.S. Department of Education/U.S. Secretary of Education. If study is at an educational institution outside the United States and its territories, you must provide independent verification of equivalency. A list of acceptable companies who provide this service can be found on the New York State Civil Service website. You must pay the required evaluation fee.
